

QQI LEVEL SIX
CHILD PSYCHOLOGY

VENUE: Portmarnock Adult Education

EVENING: Tuesday 29th January 2019

COURSE TIME: 7 - 9.30pm

Week	DATE	CONTENT
1	29 th January	Introduction to course Exploring Child Psychology History & Background Branches of Psychology Sensory Perception
2	5 th February	Play and the developing child/adolescent Impact of attitudes, beliefs and assumptions on policies and procedures Research and Acknowledging Sources Reflective Practice
3	12 th February	Physical Development Cognitive Development Language Development
4	19 th February	Social Development Emotional Development Moral Development
5	26 th February	Exploring Theoretical Perspectives in Psychology The Evolutionary Perspective Behaviourism Constructivism & Social Constructivism
6	5 th March	Psychodynamics Attachment Theory Social Learning Theories
7	12 th March	The young child, adolescent and change Rites of Passage Transitions and the Role of the Family
8	19 th March	Identity Development Peers Youth Consumerism
9	26 th March	The role of technology in child psychology and learning The brain as an information processor Computers & Learning The role of video games in cognitive development
10	2 nd April	The influence of television on the overall development of the child The role of technology in assisting the development of children with special needs. The media and how it constructs identity